Looking for a unique way to entertain your customers at the 2005 NIA Convention?

Why not consider booking a block of tickets and inviting your special customers? We'll make it easy for you.

For the first time, NIA is offering a special opportunity for its associate members. On Tuesday, March 22, we'll kick off our Associates Night with a Red Carpet Reception, an event allowing all to meet up with fellow attendees to socialize, sip on cocktails and nibble on hors d'oeuvres. Immediately following, buses will depart for the Las Vegas strip to transport registrants to two pre-selected, famed Las Vegas shows.

Your choice of two shows:

KA is the latest mystical creation of Cirque du Soleil, with its preview performance opening at the MGM Grand this month. KA combines acrobatics, martial arts, puppetry, multimedia and pyrotechnics to illustrate the nature of duality, telling the epic saga of separated twins. More than 70 artists compose the international cast, with Asian-influenced costumes. This show is being launched as one of Cirque's "most theatrical shows ever." It can truly be said that you will never experience anything like it, unless, of course, you have attended other Cirque du Soleil performances.

Mamma Mia is considered the most successful show in the world. Fall in love with the characters of ABBA songs as their lives unfold on stage at Mandalay Bay. It is a tale of love, laughter and friendship of a daughter and her unique family as she prepares for her wedding. The hilarious and enchanting story is set on a tiny Greek island.

Transportation, ticket arrangements, and food and beverages on the bus ride to the show will all be provided. Pre-book your customers' evening out on the town, and leave the legwork to us.

Large blocks of tickets have already been reserved. Get yours today while supplies last!
